PREFACE

The following pages describe such a varied assortment of Coins and Medals that I trust every one receiving the Catalogue will send in some bids—it encourages the cataloguer and helps to keep your name on my mailing list.

Mr. Jerrems has been a collector for many years, and the Ancient Coins contain many desirable examples. His collection of second and third bronzes of the Emperors, from Gallienus to Honorius, has taken many years to assemble and at a cost about double the upset price he has placed on this lot—the only reserve he has made.

Napoleon Medals embraced in the Washington gentleman's collection are nearly all originals or very early impressions, far more desirable than the modern restrikes usually obtainable.

The gem of the sale is the UNIQUE INDIAN PEACE MEDAL PRESENTED BY PRESIDENT GEORGE WASHINGTON IN 1789, and believed to be the first United States medal so presented and the only known example of this year 1789—the year of the Inauguration of the First President of the United States. It is of great historical importance, and its fortunate purchaser will possess an article that is sure to enhance in value. Mr. John F. Noegel was a lover of books and coins for a lifetime and his collecting covered a wide field of interesting material.

Collectors may feel sure of the coins, etc., meeting the descriptions in the Catalogue, for I take great pains to carefully describe them—not overrating—and if damaged or defects are there they are noted; therefore, bid all the lot is worth to you.

Thanking collectors for their liberal support in the past, and endeavoring to merit a continuance of the same, I remain,

Sincerely,

HENRY CHAPMAN,
Numismatist,

TERMS OF SALE

This sale is made for cash. Bills payable and goods ready for delivery immediately after conclusion of the sale. The highest bidder to be the buyer. Should a dispute arise and the disputant has a voucher that he was bidding, and is willing to advance on the price at which the lot was stricken off, the said lot will be put up again and resold to the highest bidder. This does not apply to where a bidder has not made any offer prior to the said item being knocked off—then the auctioneer will use his judgment as to the good faith of all claims, and his decision shall be final.

The auctioneers reserve the right to refuse the bid of an individual if he declines to make a cash deposit or pay sum bid on their request to do so.

No lot is separated. All are sold so much each piece and subject to the catalogue description and number. Should any lot be misplaced, the buyer does not acquire any right in it if it is stricken off without the mistake being discovered, and such a lot must be returned to the auctioneers. If any lot cannot be delivered, the auctioneers and cataloguer are only responsible for its value as sold at this sale. The cataloguer and auctioneers reserve the right to bid on their own account and for their clients who have sent them bids to be executed.

Every item is guaranteed genuine, and this holds good indefinitely.

No coins exhibited during the progress of the sale unless by special request, when every courtesy will be extended that is possible. Collectors are requested to carefully examine the coins while on exhibition, from 9 to 12.30 o'clock day of sale at the auction rooms, marking their catalogue, thus being prepared, as the sale progresses at the rate of 200 to 250 lots per hour.

I will carefully and faithfully execute any bids entrusted to my care for a commission of 5 per cent. on the amount purchased. No charge for work done on any not bought.

The auctioneers will execute bids free of charge, but assume no responsibility, and require payment prior to delivery of the goods.

The cataloguer and auctioneer will not be responsible for any errors made by bidders.

Hand-priced catalogue after sale for $1, payable in advance.

FIRST UNITED STATES INDIAN PEACE MEDAL.

PRESENTED BY THE FIRST PRESIDENT, GEORGE WASHINGTON.

480.00 812 1789 G. WASHINGTON, PRESIDENT, 1789. Indian Chief standing facing to the right, wearing a chaplet of war feathers and having a blanket around his body; from his right hand he lets fall to the ground his tomahawk, while with his left he receives the Pipe of Peace from Columbia, personified by a female attired in a mailed jacket and skirt, while on her head is a feathered helmet and at her left side a sheathed short sword; behind her a plow is seen and to which she points; at her feet lies the Indian's spear and shield embellished by a human face; in exergue the date, 1789. R. THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA—Arms of the U. S.—Heraldic eagle bearing shield on his breast, wings extended, olive branch in right talon and thirteen arrows in left talon; thirteen stars around his head and a band of clouds and rays encircle them, above the inscription. Silver. Engraved. Edge bound with a narrow strip of silver, which gives a raised edge, protecting the surface of the medal. Small pinchers-like loop attached to this rim at top. Very fine. Size 86 x 67 (not counting the loop). Unique and of the greatest importance, as it is believed to be the only specimen known of this year, and which was the year of the Inauguration of the First President, those previously found being dated 1792 to 1795. See plate—frontispiece to this catalogue. Probably engraved by Henry Dawkins, a celebrated engraver of book plates, etc., at Philadelphia. This medal was obtained in the Southwest of the U. S. by a Union soldier during the War of the Rebellion.
